

Tim Yeung

Family Enterprise Advisor + Executive Coach
Flourish Advising

Tim Yeung brings valuable knowledge from his ten years of experience working in his family's successful multi-generational commercial real estate business. His transition to the role of a Family Enterprise Advisor reflects his strong background in business and a deep understanding of family enterprise dynamics and governance structures.

Tim is a Mechanical Engineer from the University of British Columbia, graduated with Distinction. He is also a certified Family Enterprise Advisor (FEA) and a trained Certified Professional Co-Active Coach, making him well-prepared to guide families in their journey towards prosperity.