

Jonathan Osten

Partner, PwC Private Tax Group

Jonathan Osten is a partner in the PwC Private Tax group, based both in the Vancouver and Fraser Valley offices. He joined PwC in 2015 and has practiced Canadian tax for twenty years, with a focus on general core Canadian tax consulting.

Specifically, Jonathan has significant experience in corporate reorganizations, business and wealth succession planning, estate planning, postmortem planning, Canadian tax compliance, and facilitating correspondence with the Canada Revenue Agency. His clients cover a wide range of industries including real estate, forestry, technology, high net worth family office, and range from medium to large businesses as well as inbound private companies.